Covering the southeast corner of the state, Rockingham County contains all of the state's 17 miles of Atlantic Ocean coastline, the shortest coastline of any state in the US. The Piscataqua River and Portsmouth Harbor separate the county from Maine on a nine-mile stretch to the northeast, and it shares a 56-mile border to the south with Massachusetts. Rockingham was one of the five original counties established in 1769, and at one time covered Concord and all Merrimack County towns east of the Merrimack River. It was named for Charles Watson-Wentworth, Marquis of Rockingham, a staunch friend of the colonies. The seacoast town of Rye was one of the first two places to be settled in New Hampshire.

Rockingham County contains 697.2 square miles of land area and 29.6 square miles of inland water area. As of the 2020 Census, the population density was 451.8 persons per square mile. Rockingham County includes one city, Portsmouth, and 36 towns. The county seat is Exeter.
